

Getting to The Pavilion Conference Venue

By Road...

The central position of Llandrindod Wells means that the main A470 trunk road gives ideal access to North and South Wales, whilst the A483 services West Wales, Newtown, and Wrexham and further a field to Liverpool, Manchester and Northern England. The varied routes, all with spectacular views available to delegates travelling from Southern England, London and the Midlands will make a refreshing change to drivers used to build up, urban areas.

By Rail...

Via Shrewsbury from the North or Swansea / Llanelli from the South and West. Enjoy the Splendid journey to the Heart of Wales along its own Railway.
